The Collect of the Day

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

LESSONS

The First Reading: Acts 9:1-6, 7-20

The people sit. The Reader first saying

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do."

The Psalm:

Psalm 30, Exaltabo te, Domine

The Reader first saying

Let us read Psalm 30 responsively, breaking at the asterisk.

- 1 I will exalt you, O Lord, because you have lifted me up *
and have not let my enemies triumph over me.
- 2 O Lord my God, I cried out to you, *
and you restored me to health.
- 3 You brought me up, O Lord, from the dead; *
you restored my life as I was going down to the grave.
- 4 Sing to the Lord, you servants of his; *
give thanks for the remembrance of his holiness.
- 5 For his wrath endures but the twinkling of an eye, *
his favor for a lifetime.
- 6 Weeping may spend the night, *
but joy comes in the morning.
- 7 While I felt secure, I said, "I shall never be disturbed. *
You, Lord, with your favor, made me as strong as the mountains."
- 8 Then you hid your face, *
and I was filled with fear.
- 9 I cried to you, O Lord; *
I pleaded with the Lord, saying,
- 10 "What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the Pit? *
will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?

- 11 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me; *O Lord, be my helper."

- 12 You have turned my wailing into dancing; *

you have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with joy.

- 13 Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing; *O Lord
my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

The Epistle: Revelation 5:11-14

The Reader first saying

A reading from the Revelation to John.

I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!"

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, "To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!"

And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" And the elders fell down and worshiped.

The Gospel: John 21:1-19

The Priest first saying

A reading from the Gospel of John.

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you."

Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

The Sermon

The Reverend Mark Kekaileonui Haworth

The Nicene Creed

The Celebrant and People then say the Nicene Creed together, all standing.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The Reader says

In peace, let us pray to the Lord, saying, E ka Haku, e aloha mai (“Lord, have mercy”). For the holy Church of God, that it may be filled with truth and love, and be found without fault at the day of your coming, we pray to you, O Lord.

Here and after every petition the People respond E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For Sean, our Presiding Bishop, for Robert our own Bishop, for all bishops and other ministers, and for all the holy people of God, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For all who love God and believe in you, Lord Christ, that our divisions may cease, and that all may be one as you and the Father are one, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For the mission of the Church, that in faithful witness it may preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For the peace of the world, for the people in all areas of conflict, that a spirit of respect and forbearance may grow among nations and peoples, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For those in positions of public trust, that they may serve the people they are entrusted with, with justice and peace, and promote dignity and freedom for all, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For the poor, the persecuted, the sick, and all who suffer; for refugees, prisoners – for King and Todd, for those who are deployed, for those traveling, and all who are in danger; that they may be relieved and protected, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For this congregation, that we may be delivered from hardness of heart, and show forth your glory in all that we do, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For all who have commended themselves to our prayers; for those who are in discernment for ministry – Erik, for those celebrating life events__, for our friends, and neighbors; that being freed from anxiety, they may live in joy, peace, and health, we pray to you, O Lord. People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For all who have died in the communion of your Church, including Pope Francis and our mourning siblings in the Roman Catholic Church, _____and their loved ones, and those whose faith is known to you alone, that, with all the saints, they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal, we pray to you, O Lord. People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

Rejoicing in the fellowship of the ever-blessed Virgin Mary and St. Joseph, King Kamehameha IV and Queen Emma, Queen Lili‘uokalani, Mother Marianne of Moloka‘i, and Father Damien, and all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God.

People Ho'omaika'i iā, e ka Haku. (Praise to you, O Lord.)

The Celebrant adds the following concluding Scripture verse from 1 Tim. 1:17.

I ke Ali'i mua loa, make'ole,
'ike maka 'ole 'ia,
ke Akua akamai o'okahi wale nō,
ka mahalo, a me ka ho'onani 'ia
a mau loa aku.

'Āmene.

*To the King of ages, immortal,
invisible,
the only God,
be honor and glory, forever
and ever.*

Amen.

Prayer for Restoration

Celebrant

Recognizing that we all have a part in the hurts done to each other and to the whole creation, we acknowledge our own failings, ask forgiveness, and pray for a new start.

Together

Fount of all mercy, we acknowledge that we have strayed from your way. We ask that you restore us when we lose the way of oneness with you and your creation. Be with us as we wander in that lonely wilderness, strengthen us as we return, renew us in the awareness of your ever-present love, and return us to your ways of love, compassion, and service.

Celebrant

By the power of the one great love, your errors are forgiven. May you be made whole and brought anew into the peace of God. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The Eucharist

The service then continues with the Offertory of the Eucharist.

The Celebrant, faces them and sings or says

God is with us!

People We are with God!

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Source.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to our Creator God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant.

Celebrant and people together:

From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; rock, fire, and every living thing.

Celebrant and people together:

You made us creators in your image and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, wandered far away, and used your gifts for evil. And yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in your light and the fullness of your love.

So this day we join with all the Earth and heavens in a chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we say: Holy, Holy, Holy God, Source of light and life. Earth and the heavens are filled with your love. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of God. Hosanna in the highest.

Then the Celebrant continues

Holy of Holies, remembering our oneness with all that exists and all that has life, it is a joyful thing to be in your presence with each other, with this land, and with all creation.

Celebrant and people

It is a miracle that we and this whole world are here, made by the Light of all lights, formed from stars that lived, died, and poured forth the elements – hydrogen, oxygen, carbon, iron, gold, and more. Born of the sea and walking on earth, we are miracles, shaped by the forces of life, kin with all beings. This meal of abundance we are about to share is also a miracle – a gift of earth, water, wind, and fire, and of seeds buried in the earth and cracked open. This bread and this wine, with their many meanings, are gifts of life to the living.

Celebrant

For followers of Jesus, these gifts assume particular meaning. Living among us, Jesus went alone upon the mountain to pray. He loved us, broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world into the heart of God – but we have not heeded his call to walk in love.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it, or to lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

When the time came to complete the offering of his life upon the cross, Jesus was eating supper with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, O God, broke it, offered it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body, offered to heal you and the whole world. Whenever you eat it, remember this.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again he gave thanks to you, offered it to his friends, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new covenant – a promise of eternal love poured out for you and for all beings. Whenever you drink it, remember this.”

Celebrant and people

Now gathered at your table, remembering that we are one with you and with all creation, we offer to you from your own Earth these gifts of the land, this bread and wine, and our own bodies – our own living sacrifice. Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Fill us with your Breath, O God, opening our eyes and renewing us in your love. Send your Spirit over this land and over the whole Earth, making everything a new creation. In the fullness of time bring us, with this good Earth and with all your creatures from every people and tribe and faith and language and nation and species, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Celebrant

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all light and life and love are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Now together we pray:

Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Life-giver, Pain-bearer, Source of all that is and ever shall be, Your name be sung with joy!

Your peace, your justice, your mercy come on earth. With the food we need for today, feed us. For the hurt we cause, forgive us. As we lose the way, restore us. When we are enslaved by evil, transform us, For you are the way, and the truth, and the life, now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The priest breaks the bread saying

Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

Priest

These are gifts of God for all the creatures of God. Remember that Christ came to renew us and the whole world. Feed on him in your hearts and bodies and minds that you may be made new and sent forth in love to heal the world.

The ministers receive the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the people.
