Opening Hymn: Ka Wai Lehua By Frank Kawaikapuokalani Hewitt

Ke iho la ka ua	As the rain falls
Halihali nā lehua o luna	It bears lehua blossoms from above
E, e, e	E, e, e

Helele`i pua i ke kai	The blossoms fall into the sea
Hula le`a nā lehua i ka moana	And dance playfully upon the waters of the ocean

He kupa la ka ua i ke kai	The rain is well acquainted with the sea
Ke ho`i hou e aloha mai	And as it returns to the sea,
E, e, e	the two become one and the cycle is complete
	E, e, e

He mele nou e ku`u lani	This is my tribute to you, my Heavenly one
Ka wai lehua `a`ala ka honua	The lehua rain that awakens

The people standing, the Celebrant says

Blessed be God: father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

The people standing, the Celebrant says

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria: Ekolu

Celebrant E pule kā kou. (Let us pray.)

The Collect of the Day

O Sovereign God, who raised up Queen Lili'uokalani, King Kamehameha IV, and Queen Emma to be rulers here in the Kingdom of Hawaii, and inspired and enabled them to be diligent in good works for the welfare of our people and the good of your Church: Receive our thanks for their witness to the Gospel; and grant that we, with them, may attain to the crown of glory that never fades away; through Jesus Christ our Savior and Redeemer, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. People. Amen.

The First Lesson: (Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14)

The people sit. The Reader first saying:

A Reading from the Prophet Daniel.

As I watched, thrones were set in place, and an Ancient One took his throne, his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and its wheels were burning fire.

A stream of fire issued and flowed out from his presence.

A thousand thousands served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him.

The court sat in judgment, and the books were opened.

As I watched in the night visions, I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven.

And he came to the Ancient One and was presented before him.

To him was given dominion and glory and kingship, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him.

His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not pass away, and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed.

The Word of the Lord. People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm (Psalm 93), Dominus regnavit)

The Reader first saying

Let us read Psalm 93 responsively, breaking at the asterisk.

- 1 The LORD is King;
 he has put on splendid apparel; *
 the LORD has put on his apparel and girded himself with strength.
- 2 He has made the whole world so sure * that it cannot be moved;
- 3 Ever since the world began, your throne has been established; *
 you are from everlasting.
- 4 The waters have lifted up, O LORD,
 the waters have lifted up their voice; *
 the waters have lifted up their pounding waves.
- 5 Mightier than the sound of many waters,
 mightier than the breakers of the sea, *
 mightier is the LORD who dwells on high.
- 6 Your testimonies are very sure, *
 and holiness adorns your house, O LORD,
 for ever and for evermore.

The Epistle (Revelation 1:4b-8)

The Reader first saying

A Reading from the Revelation to John.

Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Look! He is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail.

So it is to be. Amen.

“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

The Word of the Lord. People Thanks be to God.

Chorus

The Gospel: John 18:33-37

Then, all standing, the Deacon or a Priest reads the Gospel, first saying

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?" Pilate replied, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here." Pilate asked him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

The Gospel of the Lord. People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Mark KekaiLeonui Haworth

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

In peace, let us pray to the Lord, saying, E ka Haku, e aloha mai (“Lord, have mercy”).

For the holy Church of God, that it may be filled with truth and love, and be found without fault at the day of your coming, we pray to you, O Lord.

Here and after every petition the People respond E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For Michael our Presiding Bishop, for Robert our own Bishop, for all bishops and other ministers, and for all the holy people of God, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For all who love God and believe in you, Lord Christ, that our divisions may cease, and that all may be one as you and the Father are one, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For the mission of the Church, that in faithful witness it may preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth, we pray to you, O Lord. People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For the peace of the world, for all peoples of Israel, Palestine, and the Ukraine, that a spirit of respect and forbearance may grow among nations and peoples, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For those in positions of public trust, that they may serve the people they are entrusted with, with justice and peace, and promote the dignity and freedom for all, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For the poor, the persecuted, the sick _____, and all who suffer; for refugees, prisoners – for King and Todd, for those who are deployed, for those traveling _____ and all who are in danger; that they may be relieved and protected, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For this congregation, that we may be delivered from hardness of heart, and show forth your glory in all that we do, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For all who have commended themselves to our prayers; for those who are in discernment for ministry –Erik, for those celebrating life events: for Sarah and Mike’s wedding anniversary, ____, for our friends, and neighbors; that being freed from anxiety, they may live in joy, peace, and health, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

For all who have died in the communion of your Church _____ and those whose faith is known to you alone, that, with all the saints, they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal, we pray to you, O Lord.

People E ka Haku, e aloha mai.

Rejoicing in the fellowship of the ever-blessed Virgin Mary and St. Joseph, King Kamehameha IV and Queen Emma, Queen Lili‘uokalani, Mother Marianne of Moloka‘i, and Father Damien, and all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God.

People Ho’omaika’i iā, e ka Haku. (Praise to you, O Lord.)

The Celebrant adds the following concluding Scripture verse from 1 Tim. 1:17.

I ke Ali'i mua loa, make'ole,
'ike maka 'ole 'ia,
ke Akua akamai o'okahi wale nō,
ka mahalo, a me ka ho'onani 'ia,
a mau loa aku.
'Āmene.

*To the King of ages, immortal, invisible,
the only God,
be honor and glory, forever
and ever.*
Amen.

Prayer for Restoration

Celebrant : Recognizing that we all have a part in the hurts done to each other and to the whole creation, we acknowledge our own failings, ask forgiveness, and pray for a new start.

Together

Fount of all mercy, we acknowledge that we have strayed from your way. We ask that you restore us when we lose the way of oneness with you and your creation. Be with us as we wander in that lonely wilderness, strengthen as we return, renew us in the awareness of your ever-present love, and return us to your ways of love, compassion, and service.

Celebrant

By the power of the one great love, your errors are forgiven. May you be made whole and brought anew into the peace of God. Amen.

The Queen's Prayer

The Eucharist

The Celebrant, faces them and sings or says

God is with us!

People

We are with God!

Celebrant

Lift up your hearts.

People

We lift them to the Source.

Celebrant

Let us give thanks to our Creator God.

People

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Then the Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Celebrant and people together:

From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; rock, fire, and every living thing. You made us creators in your image and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, wandered far away, and used your gifts for evil. And yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in your light and the fullness of your love. So this day we join with all the Earth and heavens in a chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we say: Holy, Holy, Holy God, Source of light and life. Earth and the heavens are filled with your love. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of God. Hosanna in the highest.

Then the Celebrant continues

Holy of Holies, remembering our oneness with all that exists and all that has life, it is a joyful thing to be in your presence with each other, with this land, and with all creation.

Celebrant and people

It is a miracle that we and this whole world are here, made by the Light of all lights, formed from stars that lived, died, and poured forth the elements – hydrogen, oxygen, carbon, iron, gold, and more. Born of the sea and walking on earth, we are miracles, shaped by the forces of life, kin with all beings. This meal of abundance we are about to share is also a miracle – a gift of earth, water, wind, and fire, and of seeds buried in the earth and cracked open. This bread and this wine, with their many meanings, are gifts of life to the living.

Celebrant

For followers of Jesus, these gifts assume particular meaning. Living among us, Jesus went alone upon the mountain to pray. He loved us, broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world into the heart of God – but we have not heeded his call to walk in love. When the time came to complete the offering of his life upon the cross, Jesus was eating supper with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, O God, broke it, offered it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body, offered to heal you and the whole world. Whenever you eat it, remember this.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again he gave thanks to you, offered it to his friends, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new covenant – a promise of eternal love poured out for you and for all beings. Whenever you drink it, remember this.”

Celebrant and people

Now gathered at your table, remembering that we are one with you and with all creation, we offer to you from your own Earth these gifts of the land, this bread and wine, and our own bodies – our own living sacrifice. Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ.

Fill us with your Breath, O God, opening our eyes and renewing us in your love. Send your Spirit over this land and over the whole Earth, making everything a new creation. In the fullness of time bring us, with this good Earth and with all your creatures from every people and tribe and faith and language and nation and species, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Celebrant

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all light and life and love are yours, now and forever. Amen.

People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy Kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth,
as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil;
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever.

Amen.

Mele Kauanui:

E ko mākou Makua i loko o ka lani, E
ho‘āno ‘ia kou inoa.
E hiki mai kou aupuni;
E mālama ‘ia kou makemake ma ka

Amene.

The Breaking of the Bread (The priest breaks the bread saying)

Christ is sacrificed for us all! These are gifts of God for all the creatures of God. Remember that Christ came to renew us and the whole world. Feed on him in your hearts and bodies and minds that you may be made new and sent forth in love to heal the world.

Communion Hymn: Kanaka wai wai

Chorus:
"Give, give away all
Of your possessions
Then come and follow me
In order to gain eternal life"
The young man grieved
Over his wealth
Unwilling to sell and give all
To the poor and destitute
Jesus then turned
And answered the man,
"Rich man, you will not enter
The Kingdom of Heaven

After Communion, the Celebrant says

E pule kā kou. (Let us pray.)

Celebrant and People

God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and the cup of love. You have reunited us with Christ, with the Earth, and with one another. Now, send us forth in the power of your Spirit that we may proclaim your love and continue forever in the risen life of Christ. Amen.

Celebrant:

Ka Ho‘opomaika‘i, ana o, Ke Akua Mana Loa, Ka Makua, Ke Keiki, a me Ka‘uhane hemolele, Me‘oukou, a mau loa aku. The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be upon all of you and remain forever.
Amen.
